Play Therapist Employment Opportunity

- Full-time, term position (37.5 hours per week)
- August 16, 2022 to June 20, 2023, with possibility of extension

Excellent opportunity to join the professional team of the Child Development Centre in beautiful Whitehorse, Yukon. Our growing team provides quality early intervention services to children from birth to 5 years of age throughout the Yukon. Our team of developmental therapists/play therapists work as part of a transdisciplinary team to provide assessment and therapeutic follow-up for children and their families in the areas of behavior and social and emotional development. Occasional travel to rural communities is required. Relocation allowance of up to $2000 is available.

Nestled in iconic Yukon, Whitehorse is a spectacular city with room to spread out and enjoy a variety of activities such as hiking, x-country and downhill skiing, mountain biking and a vast array of arts and cultural activities. Whitehorse offers English first-language, French-first language and French immersion schools. Surrounded by mountains and nestled among dense black spruce and poplar forests of the Yukon River Valley, the City of Whitehorse aptly chose "The Wilderness City" as its slogan. With some of the cleanest air in the world, yet with multiple flights to southern jurisdictions offered daily, Whitehorse is more connected than you think.

Qualifications

- Relevant master's degree (e.g. counselling, psychology, social work, occupational therapy, etc)
- Certified or working towards certification in Play Therapy
- Experience working with young children with developmental needs and their families
- Knowledge of assessment and intervention strategies in the area of social-emotional and behavioural development
- Experience working in a cross-cultural setting
- Membership in national or regulatory body as appropriate

Currently, COVID-19 vaccination is a requirement of this position. This may change based on government mandates.

Salary Range

$39.35 - $47.87 hour depending on qualifications and experience.

This position is covered by the Public Service Alliance of Canada Collective Agreement.

Course Overview

This 2-day intensive course focuses specifically on the role of caregivers in child and adolescent therapy, and the importance of engaging them in the play therapy setting. Caregivers play a vital role in the success of the child's therapy and can also pose as a potential barrier to the child's healing process. This course will cover a wide range of clinical areas in the work with caregivers. It will focus on caregiver engagement, and how we can move towards parents being allies and treatment partners in the therapeutic process. It will also cover the assessment and treatment phases of play-therapy, and how caregivers can continue to support the therapeutic needs of the child both in the play therapy room, and at home. Course material and play-therapy interventions will be based on evidence-based practices and the most up-to date literature on the topic.
