

We are excited to be providing a different opportunity for attendees this year, an opportunity to engage with experts in the field of Loss and Grief as it relates to working with Children and Families. We know members and attendees have experienced loss both professionally and personally, and we hope that by providing an opportunity to explore these subjects together, we will gain new insights and techniques that we can apply in the Playroom and beyond. As this work is so important, we have adapted our conference program to reflect the value of having a strong knowledge foundation in Grief and Loss as integral to integrative Play Therapy practice.
