Looking for fresh ideas, professional connections and opportunities to bring the power of play into your work? Explore what the Canadian Association for Play Therapy (CAPT) has to offer as a General Member.

General Membership is for professionals who want to connect with the play therapy community, access resources and enjoy training discounts, but are not currently working toward CAPT certification. There is no obligation to pursue certification.

For $50 plus tax, you can explore CAPT membership for the remainder of 2026, with benefits continuing through January 31, 2027:

- Save with member pricing on training, workshops, conferences and continuing education;
- Connect with clinicians and professionals across Canada, including free member events such as Coffee and Connect;
- Receive The Sand Tray newsletter and the digital Playground magazine; and
- Learn about certification pathways and opportunities to connect with Certified Play Therapist Supervisors.

Whether you work in mental health, education, nursing, early childhood education or child and youth care, there is a place for you in our community.
